PLENARY CLE SESSIONS

Marriage & Divorce in the Golden Years
Frontenac

As our population ages, most family law lawyers have seen their practices swell with clients facing the end of a marriage in the golden years. This program will address premarital considerations for such clients, including the use of Domestic Asset Protection Trusts and other creative prenuptial devices; an analysis of alimony in a golden years' case, and how assisted living and Medicare rules are affected by alimony; and planning issues for older divorcees, including long-term care, Medicaid/Medicare, Social Security, and VA benefits, in the context of other financial resources.

Moderator:

Kenneth G. Raggio, Esq., Dallas, TX

Speakers:

Mary Cushing Doherty, Esq., Norristown, PA
Jeremiah W. Doyle IV, Esq., Boston, MA
Suzanne I. Seubert, Esq., Wilmington, DE
Leslie Ann Shaner, Esq., Chesterfield, VA

SIMULTANEOUS CLE SESSIONS

Dancing with Our Neighbor: Spousal Support Guidelines in Canada and the US

Petit Frontenac

For about the last decade, Canadians have used a national set of Spousal Support Guidelines. In 2002, the American Law Institute proposals for law reform sparked the inception of the Canadian Spousal Support Guidelines. There is much we can learn and avoid by understanding the Canadian experience with Guidelines and their applications. This presentation will review recent trends in alimony in the US, and show how the Guidelines have been implemented and used in Canada on a daily basis. Practical questions will be answered and discussed, including: what are the Guidelines exactly; how do they work; their advantages and disadvantages; and if the Canadians could redo them what would be changed.

Speakers:

Amy J. Amundsen, Esq., Memphis, TN

Lonny L. Balbi, Q.C., Calgary, AB, Canada

Everything You Wanted to Know but Were Afraid to Ask – Cultural and Diversity Issues in Family Law

Bellevue

This session will provide information that every family lawyer needs to know when dealing with a diverse clientele from different ethnic and cultural backgrounds. Within our ever-changing society, it is important to know how to meet the needs of our clientele. The session will provide information on a variety of areas that are important to diverse clients and should be understood and recognized by family law attorneys.

Moderator:

Stephen C. Zollman, Esq., Guerneville, CA

SIMULTANEOUS CLE SESSIONS

Alternatives to Hague Abduction Proceedings

Petit Frontenac

The Hague Abduction Treaty is a useful civil remedy to obtain prompt return of a child to the child's habitual residence when abducted or retained out of that country. However, there are many cases where the Hague Treaty does not apply, where it is not useful, or where it is not the best remedy available for a certain case. Panelists will explore alternatives to the Hague Abduction Treaty to secure return of a child, including registering and enforcing foreign custody orders under the UCCJEA, exploring child abduction prevention measures in your U.S. custody order, knowing where to incorporate your voluntary agreement to increase the likelihood of its enforceability, tools for increasing the likelihood that your U.S. custody order will be enforceable overseas, including the role of the child's voice in the proceedings, and non-civil remedies, including criminal statutes, diplomatic channels, and other considerations.

Intersection of Family and Immigration Laws: Tips, Tools and Best Practices Based on Legally Correct Information

Bellevue

As the number of communities across the country with significant or growing populations of immigrants increases, family lawyers and judges need access to legally correct information about how immigration law does and does not impact family court proceedings. This workshop will provide an overview of U.S. Department of Homeland Security policies and the legal immigration options that are available to protect immigrant crime victims, abused immigrant children and immigrant parents from deportation and removal. Tools and best practices for the most common issues that arise in everyday practice will be highlighted. Finally, the workshop will address special issues arising from the family courts' role in Special Immigrant Juvenile Status for immigrant children and issues of discovery related to federal Violence Against Women Act immigration laws.

Speakers:

Prof. Leslye E. Orloff, Washington, D.C.
Prof. Veronica T. Thronson, East Lansing, MI

Marital Torts/Common Criminal Allegations

Place D'Armes

Of increasing interest in the family law community are the ancillary issues of marital torts and criminal allegations in the context of a family law case. Sometimes these issues are raised within the family law case itself. Other times, such claims remain viable after the case is over. During this 1-hour program, you will be introduced to a variety of marital torts and criminal allegations that permeate many family law cases. Through a variety of fact patterns, the experienced panelists will address both the substantive and procedural issues related to these claims.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Île d'Orléans (Island of Orleans)
tourisme.iledorleans.com

Located in the middle of the St. Lawrence River, the entire island is a designated historic district. Only about 10 miles from Québec, take a day trip to enjoy beautiful scenery, locally-sourced cuisine, and bountiful history of great cultural importance to the region.

Parc de la Chute-Montmorency
www.sepaq.com/ct/pcm

A 20-minute drive from the Fairmont, this is home to Montmorency Falls—30 meters higher than Niagara Falls! See the sights on foot, via cable car or from the gourmet restaurant on-site.

Québec to Lévis Ferry
www.traversiers.com/en/our-ferries/traverse-quebec-levis/home

Take a short journey across the St. Lawrence River to the city of Lévis. Enjoy spectacular views of Québec City—including the Château Frontenac—and then explore another Québec city's historic district.

Wendake
tourismewendake.ca

A 30-minute drive outside Québec City will bring you to this First Nations' enclave of the Huron-Wendat people. Visit the on-site museum, explore Old Wendake, and discover why the Huron-Wendat settled in this area in 1697.
